

Interested in adoption

Please do not feel scared or hurt by our questions.

We want our animals to find a new home where they are accepted and understood in their own way. We would like to ask you to honestly answer the questions which are important for the mediation so that we can bring the right family with the right animal together. We would like to ask you to honestly answer the questions that are important for the placement. Only then we can possibly draw your attention to some points to consider. Thank you!
